Event Description

An Online Workshop on "Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) & Patents and Design Filing" was successfully organized on February 14, 2025, by the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and Research and Development Cell (RDC), Hansraj College, in collaboration with the Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Intellectual Property Management (RGNIIPM), Nagpur, under the National IP Awareness Mission (NIPAM).

The workshop, open to faculty and students, commenced with a warm welcome and an introduction of the guest speaker by Dr. Pooja Jha Maity, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, Hansraj College. The resource person, Shri Kumar Raju (Assistant Controller of Patents & Designs), provided valuable insights into the significance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in fostering innovation and economic growth. He elaborated on various aspects of IPR, including copyrights, patents, trademarks, and industrial designs, with a special emphasis on designs as a form of IPR and their role in protecting innovation.

A key highlight of the session was the discussion on career opportunities in the field of IPR, offering students guidance on building a career in this domain. Shri Raju explained the patent filing process, associated fees, and legal aspects of IPR, illustrating his points with relatable examples from the advertisement industry. He also shed light on Patent Laws, regulations, and the broader legal framework governing IPR.

The session concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where participants actively raised queries and discussed various aspects of IPR. The workshop proved to be highly informative and beneficial, enriching students and faculty with a deeper understanding of IPR and its practical implications.

The event concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Professor Monika Koul, Department of Botany & IPR Coordinator, who expressed gratitude to the speaker for his insightful talk and acknowledged the enthusiastic participation of attendees.
