Event Description (About 250 Words):

The Stakeholder Conclave – 2025 was held on 6th October 2025 at Park Plaza Hotel, Shahdara, Delhi, organized by the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) under the Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Government of India, in association with the Department of Physics & Electronics, IIC & SLC, Hansraj College, University of Delhi. The event commenced at 10:00 AM and brought together a vibrant mix of academicians, innovators, and industry professionals.

The conclave aimed to foster collaboration and dialogue among stakeholders to promote standards-based innovation and strengthen the culture of quality in education and research. BIS, the National Standards Body of India, operates under the BIS Act 2016 to ensure the harmonious development of standardization, marking, and quality certification of goods across the country.

DLBO-II coordinated the stakeholder engagement, extending invitations to various institutions and individuals. The event witnessed active participation from six faculty members and fifty students from Hansraj College, guests from different schools and industries etc., reflecting strong academic interest and commitment to quality standards.

A key highlight of the conclave was the recognition of outstanding contributions to the Standards Club. Dr. Yogesh Kumar was honoured with a commemorative shield for his exceptional guidance and dedicated mentorship, reinforcing the importance of academic leadership in shaping future innovators. The conclave featured interactive sessions, expert talks, and networking opportunities, creating a dynamic platform for knowledge exchange. Overall, the event was a grand success, reaffirming BIS's mission to engage stakeholders in building a robust ecosystem of quality and innovation.
