Ref. No. HRC/Notice/2026/126

18.05.2026

NOTICE

It has come to the notice of the College Administration through certain social media reports that an employee of the institution was allegedly involved in activities amounting to malpractice and misconduct.

In this regard, all employees are hereby advised and strictly instructed to refrain from engaging in any form of malpractice, unethical conduct, or activities that may tarnish the reputation and integrity of the institution.

The College maintains a zero-tolerance policy towards any misconduct. Any employee found involved in such activities, directly or indirectly, shall be liable for strict disciplinary action as per institutional rules and regulations.

All staff members are expected to uphold the dignity, discipline, and professional ethics of the institution.

Prof. (Dr.) Rama

Principal
