

Live Streaming of Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's Visit to the University of Delhi

The grand culmination of the Centenary Celebrations of the University of Delhi took place on the momentous day of June 30, 2023, within the vibrant confines of the Delhi University Sports Stadium. The air was filled with anticipation and excitement as the esteemed presence of the Honourable Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, lending an aura of eminence to the proceedings. Adding to the dignified gathering was the esteemed presence of the Honourable Education Minister, Shri Dharmesh Pradhan, who held the position of Guest of Honour.

In the auditorium, more than 500 members of Hansraj College eagerly awaited the commencement of the proceedings. The program commenced with the ethereal Saraswati Vandana echoing through the hall, accompanied by the resounding strains of the Kul geet.

The distinguished Vice-Chancellor of the university, Prof Yogesh Singh, took centre stage and eloquently expounded upon the exceptional qualities of the hardworking Prime Minister. He emphasized the profound significance of the Prime Minister's presence, hailing it as a moment of historical magnitude for Delhi University. The Vice Chancellor's words painted a vivid picture of an extraordinary individual who had risen above the ordinary and stood as a beacon of inspiration for the nation.

Next, the Minister of Education graced the lectern, his voice commanding attention and respect. He spoke passionately about the pivotal role played by Delhi University in leading the protest against the dark period of Emergency. It was a powerful reminder of the university's unwavering commitment to upholding democratic values and championing the people's voice.

With pride and enthusiasm, the Honourable Minister highlighted the impressive global standing of Delhi University. He proudly announced that the university stood among the elite 11 Indian institutions listed among the top 500 Educational Institutions in the world. This remarkable achievement showcased the university's relentless pursuit of excellence and its commitment to fostering a culture of learning and innovation.

Finally, the moment arrived that everyone had been eagerly awaiting—the Prime Minister stepped forward to address the gathering. With unwavering conviction and a vision for the future, he shared his aspirations for Delhi University to become a harbinger of change, fully prepared to embrace the challenges and opportunities that lay ahead. He expressed his earnest desire for the university to spearhead groundbreaking innovations that would shape the future, positioning Delhi University among the most esteemed institutions globally.

Indeed, the Valedictory Ceremony of the Centenary Celebrations of the University of Delhi proved to be a remarkable milestone, not only in commemorating a century of academic excellence but also in kindling the aspirations of the students and reaffirming their crucial role in the nation's growth. The event not only celebrated the university's rich heritage but also served as a catalyst for fostering a brighter and more progressive future for India through the collective efforts of its young minds. The members of the Hansraj College family in the auditorium were left inspired, their hearts brimming with anticipation for the remarkable journey that lay ahead.
