

Theatre in the Times of Corona

Saturday, 4 July 2020, 11:00 to 12:00

Sanjay Kumar, president of Pandies' Theatre, will be appearing for a live talk on lifeandmore.in's YouTube channel. The conversation will revolve around the making of theatre —possibly the most social of activities— in the times of Coronavirus Pandemic during the Lockdown and now in the post-Lockdown period. Apart from discussing what Pandies has been doing during this period, we will also discuss what is the space and direction of activism in theatre as we proceed towards this new normal. We'll also have an opportunity to talk about Pandies' theatre's recent experimental live online Zoom performance of Clifford Odets' Till the Day I Die, under the direction of Sanjay Kumar, and what the group is planning to do next.
