On 29th February, 2023 the society organized a much awaited, the game of fun, Zoo-e-Antakshari at college Amphitheatre.

The game began with much enthusiasm.

Firstly the teams were divided into two pools, 4 teams each, which was the beginning of Round I, where the teams had to guess the song and clap twice by looking at the picture of animal shown to them.

Round II included English lyrics of Bollywood songs and teams needed to sing their Hindi version. In Round III, songs had to be guessed by emojis and it was a buzzer round and in the final round, teams had to guess the song based on background music.

The winner of the event was the team titled 'Viral Fever' headed by zoology department professors.

The exciting event ended at 5 p.m. with the loud cheering of students for their all rounder professors. The game was no doubt a short relief from the hectic schedule of both the students and professors' success of the event was greatly due to the perfect interaction among the members of the society.
