2022-2023

Name of the Society : Pixels- The Photography and Videography Society

Name of the event 2 : Dikshit's Workshop

Date of the event : 22/02/2023

List of Participants : 35

Dikshit led a workshop that turned the spotlight on the cool intersection of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and photography. The goal? Unleashing AI's potential to spark unique and creative ideas for photos.

Dikshit showcased the potential of AI in suggesting fresh and imaginative ideas for diverse types of photographs. The discussion centered around how AI algorithms can analyze image data, identify patterns, and propose novel concepts for both composition and editing. It wasn't just a theoretical session; the participants gained valuable techniques and tips to elevate their photography skills through the practical techniques shared by him, related to AI driven creative ideas.

Dikshit's workshop was like opening a door to a new world where AI meets photography. Simple, fun, and packed with useful tricks, it left us buzzing with ideas for our next shot.
