

2018-2019

Name of the Department/Society: Ostraca

Name of the Event 1: SayLore

Date of the Event: November 2018

We at Ostraca truly understand the vitality of expression, and so we were very excited to announce 'Say-lore', an open mic initiative to provide a platform to any and everyone who has emotion in need of an audience. It was an initiative to make our community bigger and a space that provides a platform for various art forms.

We invited fellow poets, storytellers, singers, musicians, and comedians to come and unleash their talents, share their experiences, tell their stories and sing their hearts out. We wished to provide a happy little space for everybody to learn, grow, rejoice and more importantly- speak up!

All the performances of the afternoon warmed our hearts and made the polluted Delhi air seem a little more melodious and magical. So much so, that we came up with a promise to make this a regular event.
