The Zoological Society "Srishti Chetna" provides a platform for students to learn through various academic and cultural activities. The zoological society started its activities with a formal fresher's welcome with a beautiful theme "The Shades of You". An inaugural Lecture was organised on 25th September 2018 by famed writer and Professor K. N. Tyagi delivered a talk on "Relevance of Classical Zoology in Present Day Scenario". The objective of this lecture was to expand the knowledge, carrier opportunities and directions in various fields of zoology to the students.
