NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

2024-2025

Name of the Event: India's Act East Policy

Organised by: UDAAN: The Motivational Society

Date of the Event: 20th February, 2025

Duration/Event Timing: 12:40 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Venue of the Event: Old Seminar Room, C Block

Name of Coordinator: Arpit Yadav (President)

Name of Convener: Dr. Vikash Singh

Description:

The session on India's Act East Policy was successfully organized by Udaan: The Motivational Society of Hansraj College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the Northeast Cell of Hansraj College. This insightful event aimed to explore India's strategic and diplomatic approach to strengthening ties with Southeast Asian nations, focusing on economic, cultural, and regional cooperation. The event commenced with a warm welcome by the hosts, followed by the felicitation of the esteemed guest speaker, Awungshi Yuringham, Head, Department of African Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences. Prof. Yuringham, an expert in international relations, delivered an enlightening session on the evolution and significance of India's Act East Policy. During his talk, Prof. Yuringham emphasized the transition from "Look East" to "Act East," underlining the policy's role in fostering regional integration through enhanced connectivity, economic ties, and cultural exchanges. He highlighted how Northeast India serves as a vital bridge between India and East Asian countries, enabling the fulfilment of the policy's objectives. The speaker discussed the challenges associated with the Act East Policy, including infrastructure gaps, political constraints, and border-related issues. At the same time, he shed light on the immense opportunities it creates in areas like trade, tourism, and international relations. Prof. Yuringham urged students to be prepared to seize these opportunities by developing practical skills and staying proactive, rather than solely focusing on academics.

He concluded his speech by expressing his desire for Delhi University to include the Act East Policy in its curriculum, emphasizing its importance in shaping future leaders equipped with knowledge and understanding of India's regional strategies. The session was highly interactive, with students actively engaging in discussions and posing questions about the policy's implications on regional development, trade relations, and India's global standing. Prof. Yuringham provided thoughtful and detailed responses, encouraging the audience to think critically about their roles in leveraging the policy's benefits.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks jointly delivered by representatives of Udaan: The Motivational Society and the Northeast Cell. They expressed their gratitude to Prof. Yuringham for his enriching session, the Convenor, Mr. Vikash Singh, the Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Rama, and all organizing teams and participants for their contributions to the event's success.

This collaborative effort proved to be a valuable learning experience, equipping students with a deeper understanding of India's Act East Policy and the opportunities it offers. The session inspired the audience to embrace the challenges of a globalized world with confidence and optimism, leaving them with a renewed sense of purpose in contributing to India's regional and international growth.
