Organised by: Culinary Arts Society

Date of the Event: 28 March 2025

Name of Convener(s): Dr. Sahil Mehta, Dr. Sanjeev Kumar

Student Coordinator: Anushka Dhar

Event Description (About 250 Words):

The Culinary Arts Society of Hansraj College organized an engaging cooking competition on March 28th, where six teams from different colleges showcased their creativity and culinary skills. The event aimed to challenge the participants by providing them with a limited set of raw ingredients, which included bread, butter, cheese, masalas, tomatoes, onions, lemon, Doritos, mayonnaise, and ketchup.

Each team was given 1.5 hours to create a dish using only the provided ingredients, with no option to cook or use any external items, including plates or additional tools. Knives were provided for cutting and chopping but had to be used under the supervision of a designated Point of Contact (POC) assigned to each team. This restriction added an extra layer of difficulty, encouraging participants to think outside the box and make the best use of available resources.

The competition was filled with enthusiasm as the teams worked tirelessly to create unique and visually appealing dishes. From innovative sandwich variations to creatively plated salads and layered snack platters, the participants impressed both the audience and the judges with their ingenuity.

A panel of professors judged the dishes based on presentation, taste, creativity, and effective use of ingredients. After careful evaluation, the winners were announced.
