Name of the Society: Haritima - The Environmental Awareness Society

Name of the Event: Plastic waste collection

Date of the Event: 9th January, 2023

Convenor of the Department/Society: Dr Justin Mathew

Haritima - The Environmental Society of the Hansraj College organized a plastic waste collection drive in North campus of the Delhi University. The drive was organised under the project "A Million More", this project aims to plant over 10 lakhs trees within the span of 5 years in the National capital, New Delhi. Till now, we have planted more than 7500 trees and this process is just going and going. This project also creates awareness about the harmful uses of non-biodegradable materials that affect our environment drastically.

In this drive also, more than 32 harit warriors participated enthusiastically and did hard labour and collected the plastic wastes from the environment. Our waste includes different non-biodegradable materials like plastic cups, wrappers, polythene, gunny bags etc.

The students also gave the message to the society that they are really concerned about their environment and they want a sustainable future ahead. We collected the plastic wastes and then submitted it to the recycling industry.
