

2021-2022

Name of the Department/Society: Ostraca

Name of the Event 3: Gutenberg'22

Date of the Event: 7th April, 2022.

This year's Gutenberg, the annual event organised by Ostraca, the Creative Writing Society of Hansraj College, Delhi University, went without a hitch under the blazing, blazing sun at the Amphitheatre of the college on the 7th April, 2022. There was an outpouring words, verse and emotions both on stage and on paper, through the composite events Outspeak and Tabula Rasa respectively. There were impactful performances which made us cry with mirth and with sadness, which gave us chills with their profoundness and depth.

The performances of Outspeak ran riot with colours, hues of patriotism, youth, and feminism all splayed across the canvas of the stage with each individual participant's unique brushstrokes. The audience sat with bated breath as the performers and participants stole them with a flourish. Tabula Rasa had each participant pouring their heart out while poring over a sheet of paper. While carrying those sheets away for voting, we truly felt like the Postmaster from Dhumketu's short-story the Post Office; every entry seemed to carry a "living, beating heart".
