

2018 - 2019

Name of the Department/Society: English Society

Name of the Event 3: Talk: Thinking through Magic-Fantasy, Form, and the Fecundity of a Genre

Date of the Event: 3/27/2019

The Academic talk explored the genre of fantasy in literature. The talk sought to examine the elements fantasy uses such as magic, mythology or the supernatural setting up connections of the fantasy genre with other genres such as horror or science fiction. The talk also included a discussion on some of the examples of Indian fantasy literature. The talk was attended by undergrad students of English hons in Hansraj and other colleges.

