Event Description (About 250 Words)

On 15th January 2025, Delhi Yuva Sabha, an engaging and thought-provoking chat show, was organized by NDTV to shed light on the perspectives of Delhi's youth regarding the upcoming Vidhan Sabha elections. Anchored by the esteemed Mr. Arun Singh, the program brought together students and media professionals to discuss pressing social and civic issues.

The show provided a unique platform for young voices to express their insights, concerns, and aspirations for the city's governance and development. The Debating Society and Nishtha, the Civil Services Society of Hansraj College, actively participated in the discussion, showcasing their eloquence and critical thinking.

The event was not only an opportunity for Hansraj College students to share their viewpoints but also a valuable learning experience. Interacting directly with seasoned media professionals, students gained exposure to the nuances of public discourse and media dynamics. The engaging format encouraged meaningful dialogue, fostering a sense of responsibility and awareness among the youth about their role in shaping the city's future.

The program succeeded in bridging the gap between youth and decision-makers by amplifying their voices on significant topics such as governance, education, civic
