Name of the Event 5: Webinar on Recent Trends in the Ethnographic History of North-East India

Date of the Event: 18/11/2021

The History Society, Hansraj College, organized a webinar titled Recent Trends in the Ethnographic History of North-East India. Dr. David Zou, a faculty at the History Department, University of Delhi, spoke on "Recent Trends in the ethnographic History of North-East India". The lecture gave a lot of insights into the history of northeast India, an area that has not been explored much in terms of history writing. Students and college teachers were shown glimpses of how the region's history could be approached. Dr. Zou's areas of interest and specialization include colonial history, North-east India, ethnohistory & historical geography. He has published research papers "Peoples, Power, and Belief in northeast India," among others. The talk mainly shed light upon the processes through which tribes of North East India evolved.
