Name of Convener: Vinod Kumar Mayala

Event Description:

The speaker session conducted by Ms. Jasmine Kaur Majithia turned out to be a highly valuable learning experience for students who are interested in improving their speaking and interview skills. Throughout the session, she explained the key components of effective communication in a manner that seemed easy to understand and apply in practical situations.

Ms. Majithia emphasized the key techniques that students could begin applying immediately. She guided them on how to arrange their thoughts in a logical manner before speaking, so that their thoughts are conveyed clearly and not jumbled up. This is applicable whether it is an interview or a class presentation.

One of the most useful parts was her advice on how to deal with the physical and mental components of nervousness. She tackled many of the typical sources of nervousness head-on, providing practical advice on how to remain calm under pressure. Students were taught how nonverbal communication can either enhance or detract from what is being said, the value of proper eye contact in building trust and rapport, and how subtle changes in body language can convey confidence even when you're feeling unsure on the inside.

The preparation for an interview section was also very useful. Ms. Majithia walked the students through the process of preparing for typical questions, developing thoughtful answers that showcase their true strengths, and not giving generic answers that lack impact.

At the end of the session, students left with a set of skills that they can use in a variety of situations. Whether it is an interview for a job, an academic presentation, or a group discussion, they have the skills to communicate effectively. These are not academic skills but life skills that will help them in their future endeavors as they take on leadership roles.
