Organised by: समन्वय – The B.A. Programme Society

Date of the Event: 3 November, 2025

Duration/Event Timing: 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Venue of the Event: Online (Zoom)

Name of Convener: Dr. Preeti Rani

Description:

The B.A. Programme Society of Hansraj College successfully organised a speaker session on the topic “Healing in Context: Socio-Economic and Cultural Aspects of Well-being.” The session was conducted in online mode via Zoom. The event was graced by the esteemed guest speaker Ms. Sreepriya Menon, Co-Founder of SWARI Foundation, Psychiatric Social Worker, and Researcher.

The session commenced with a welcome address and formal introduction of the speaker by the Convener. In her address, Ms. Sreepriya Menon emphasised the importance of mental well-being and explained how socio-economic conditions and cultural backgrounds significantly influence the process of healing. She shared valuable insights from her professional experience and highlighted the need for inclusive and culturally sensitive approaches to mental health.

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating and asking insightful questions. The speaker patiently addressed the queries and encouraged open discussion, making the session engaging and informative. The feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Preeti Rani, who expressed gratitude to the guest speaker for sharing her expertise and appreciated the enthusiastic participation of the students. Overall, the webinar proved to be a meaningful and enriching learning experience.
