Event Description (About 250 Words):

The culinary arts society of Hansraj college recently organized a suspenseful treasure hunt event called "INVISIA". The event was themed around a popular game among us.

The mission took place in the old seminar room where the participating teams were informed about the rules and regulations of the hunt by the council. More than thirty enthusiastic participants showed up to the event, further divided into 10 teams and embracing the theme. 3 teams were designated as Impostors and the rest of them were crewmates. The teams left the lobby at 1:30 to reach their first spot which was challenging to uncover, but they succeeded and the first spot was Sparks mall. There were seven spots to be discovered and with each spot being revealed the event came to its finale and it all came back to where it started. The last spot was Hansraj college where the final puzzle was yet to be solved but as challenging as it was our participants still crushed it. Soon the winners were announced.
