The Talk Session commenced with Dr. Meenakshi introducing the agenda of the talk “Feminist Conceptualization of History” through a short discussion on the concept of “Sex” and “Gender”. The session further divulged into debates on feminist perspectives in different spheres while focusing mainly on history and historical writings. Dr. Meenakshi sought to explain the feminism debate with a short commentary on the several phases of feminist movements and their subsequent shaping of history. The conversation was further elaborated through quotes from varied scholars and philosophical historians along with questions on “intersectionality” and “subaltern” history. The discussion came to an end on a buoyant note, while widening the notional horizons and spurring an inquisitive proclivity in the minds of all those present. The meeting ended with a Vote of Thanks headed by the Vice President, followed by a group photo with all the GEC Members, the audience and Dr. Meenakshi. The session concluded with a short informal meet-and-greet with the newly recruited GEC members, before everyone dispersed for the day.
