Event Description

Overview

The CodeCrash Codeathon 2024, organized by Ordinateur, the Computer Science Society of Hansraj College, was a highly competitive event designed to test the coding skills and problem-solving abilities of individual participants. The event drew significant interest and participation from students across the college.

Event Structure

1st Round: Prelims (10th February 2024)

The first online round was conducted on Unstop and featured a quiz along with a computer science riddle round. This round aimed to test participants' theoretical knowledge and problem-solving skills in computer science. Out of the 327 students who registered, 159 participated in this round, and 30 students were shortlisted for the final round.

2nd Round: Final (17th February 2024)

The final round was organized through HackerRank on 17th February 2024. The top 30 participants faced more complex challenges that tested their coding and algorithmic skills under pressure.
