Science at the University of Delhi since December 2006, she has an extensive publication record in high-impact journals and prestigious international conferences. In her address, Professor Gupta encouraged young professionals to develop machine learning and deep learning models tailored to the Indian context.

The highlight of the event was the official launch of the magazine. Following the launch, the dedicated team behind the publication was recognized for its commendable efforts and hard work, receiving certificates of appreciation.

The launch was followed by a comprehensive session on Quantum Computing, led by Dr. Kumar Gautam. Dr. Gautam, the founder and president of QRACE and the director of Egreen Quanta LLP, currently holds a postdoctoral research position at GIST, South Korea, where he specializes in the quantum vehicle routing problem. He is also a prominent member of several academic and professional organizations, including his roles as a senior member of IEEE, a fellow of the IETE, and a member of the IEEE Consumer Electronics Society's Technical Committee on Quantum Technologies.

During his session, Dr. Gautam provided a clear explanation of Quantum Computing, its contemporary relevance, and how to utilize its principles. He concluded his presentation with a practical demonstration using the Quantum Circuit website.

The session was concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Sunita Chand.
