

2020-2021

Name of the Department/Society: Ordinateur

Name of the Event 4: TechXplore

Date of the Event: 14/01/2021

Ordinateur organized another exciting yet erudite event, TechXplore- An Article Writing Competition. Open to all, it was a platform where one could unfurl their ideas, release their opinions and let the ideas flow. The idea is to have an unrestricted and free space for all tech enthusiasts to furnish their ideas and opinions, research and brainstorm about the hot trends in the tech field and showcase their ability to analyze and express. It was a thrilling experience to go through all wonderful and eloquently written articles. E-Certificates were given to the winners.
