On the 9th of November 2022 the North-East Cell, Hansraj College conducted its Orientation Programme for the year 2022-2023.

The programme commenced at 1 O'clock and the Amphitheatre was filled with around 200 audience including the volunteers and the Executive members.

Bulmi Borah, the Cultural Head (NE Cell) hosted the event smoothly. The event started with a welcome song and the President of NE Cell, Pragya Kashyap welcomed the audience and spoke about the cell. She introduced the executive members of NE cell to the audience.

There were many vibrant performances from our cell members. The performances include various forms of dance, song and instrumental music.

We witnessed different form of dances from states like Ladakh, Assam and Manipur. All the performances were staged beautifully and appealing.

We also had a surprised impromptu performance from one of our cell member.

We conducted pop quizzes to keep the audience engaged while the performers get ready.

The programme was entertaining and interactive, the audience were enthusiastically participating.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks given by Juman, the General Secretary of NE Cell.
