Description: Viksit Bharat Programme: Media Coverage and Documentation

The Viksit Bharat programme, a nationwide government initiative, was held at Hansraj College as part of Delhi's outreach efforts to engage youth in discussions on national development and civic responsibility. The event provided students with a meaningful platform to reflect on their role in shaping India's future through informed dialogue and active participation.

Vision – The Media and Publications Society of Hansraj College undertook comprehensive media coverage of the programme, ensuring systematic documentation of the event's proceedings and key highlights. Our team worked diligently to capture significant moments, student interactions, and the broader themes discussed during the session.

Through our editorial and digital platforms, Vision presented the event's coverage in a structured and accessible format, making it available to the wider college community. The documentation included photographs, written reports, and curated content that preserved the essence of the discussions and student engagement.

This initiative reinforced Vision's commitment to responsible campus journalism and institutional documentation. By covering events of national importance hosted at Hansraj College, the society continues to fulfill its role as the college's official media body—promoting
