The B.A. Programme Society of Hansraj College organised a speaker session on the topic "Guardians of Democracy – The Administrator's Role." The session was graced by IAS Officer Sonal Goel Ma'am, Secretary, Government of Tripura, former District Magistrate and Commissioner of Municipal Corporation, who is also actively involved in rural employment generation initiatives and is a TEDx speaker and author.

During the session, she spoke about her remarkable journey—from her academic foundation at SRCC to her experiences in the corporate world and her eventual transition into the Government Services. She candidly shared the real challenges and complexities that bureaucrats often encounter while serving the nation, providing students with a deeper understanding of the dedication and resilience required in administrative roles.

Through her inspiring address, she nurtured the thoughts of young minds and encouraged them to adopt values of determination, humanity, and discipline. Her journey, marked by perseverance, hard work, and an unwavering commitment to public service, instilled a sense of purpose among the students. She enabled them to gain a clearer understanding of how government functions beyond textbook knowledge and emphasised the importance of public vigilance in ensuring transparency and accountability.

Overall, the session proved to be highly insightful and motivating, leaving a lasting impact on the students and encouraging them to contribute meaningfully to society.
