Description:

The B.A. Programme Society of Hansraj College, in collaboration with Mimāṃsā – Department of Philosophy, successfully organised an online speaker session on the topic “The Living Earth of Jainism and the New Story: Rediscovering and Reclaiming a Functional Cosmology.” The session was graced by Professor Christopher Key Chapple, a distinguished scholar, who shared his profound insights on Jain philosophy, ecology, and sustainability. The session aimed at reviving ancient Indian philosophical wisdom, particularly Jain thought, to address contemporary ecological concerns.

Professor Chapple elaborated on how ancient Indian philosophies, especially Jain philosophy, perceive the Earth as a living entity. He highlighted the Jain metaphysical worldview, which emphasises non-violence (Ahimsa), coexistence, and deep ecological sensitivity. He stressed that when nature thrives, humanity flourishes, making ecological responsibility both a moral and philosophical duty. The session sensitised the listeners towards the importance of preserving ecological balance and encouraged them to adopt sustainable practices inspired by Jain philosophy.

The session witnessed active participation from students, who engaged with the speaker through thoughtful questions and discussions, reflecting keen interest and curiosity.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to the honourable speaker for sharing his valuable insights. Gratitude was also extended to all participants for their enthusiastic
