NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

2022-2023

Name of the Department/Society: Global Association of Economics Education

Name of the Event: GAEE Conclave'23

Date of the Event: 1st February'23, 3rd February'23, 6th February'23

GAEE Hansraj, as an autonomous chapter of the Global Association of Economics Education, aligns its curriculum with real-world events, offering comprehensive platforms for education in Economics, Finance, and Entrepreneurship. In pursuit of this objective, the chapter organized and successfully concluded its flagship symposium, GAEE CONCLAVE'23, comprising a series of speaker sessions designed to bridge the gap between theory and practice. The sessions featured distinguished speakers who have excelled in their respective domains.

1) Mr. Saurav Agarwal

Mr. Saurav Agrawal delved into the intricacies of the peace economy during his session. Topics covered included economic decentralization, equality, the economy of permanence, universal upliftment, and economic treaties such as FTAs, RTAs, or CETAs. The session explored verticals of the peace economy, including Peace Financing, Trade, Technologies, Health, Education, Cooperation, and Environment. The Economic Council of India's initiative, the PLEDGE FUND, aimed at promoting sustainable economic development, growth, and empowerment, was highlighted. The notion of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakama as a contributor to a peaceful economy was also discussed. The session underscored the distinction between the War Economy and the Peace Economy using various parameters and instances.

2) Ms. Sakshi Shukla

Ms. Sakshi Shukla, an entrepreneurship and startup consultant, focused on the entrepreneurial aspects of networking. She provided insights into the importance of networking for entrepreneurs, emphasizing its irreplaceable role from product launch to development and sale. Ms. Shukla emphasized the value of creating a network that fosters honest feedback, advocates and spreads awareness about products, attracts new customers, and guides entrepreneurs on their journey. The session emphasized aligning passion with community needs, creating valuable content, and building a community before it is needed.

3) Mr. Harshvardhan Gharwal

Mr. Harshvardhan Gharwal, an officer trainee at the Indian Statistical Institute, delved into the significance of statistics, stating, "Statistics is the grammar of science." He shared insights into the history of statistics, its foundation laid by the Britishers and nurtured by prominent figures like Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, P.C Mahalanobis, and Sardar Vallabhai Patel. The session focused on 'The System of Official Statistics,' highlighting the challenges and consequences, particularly the delays in results due to India's diversity. Mr. Gharwal covered essential topics such as the Consumer Price Index (CPI), consumer reliability, statutory bodies, and quarterly GDP figures.
