Name of the Event 7: Write Your Own Success

Date of the Event: 27th February 2021

Gone are the days when writing skills were only limited to digital marketers or journalists! Written language skills are now an integral part of many positions in almost every industry.

Be it reports, proposals, marketing copies, presentations you have to draft regularly as a part of your work responsibilities. And, of course, how can we forget the very first step to applying for a job: _a resume or CV._

That being said, resume making is one of the very basic soft skill one should have. It is important for making the transition from college to the workforce.

SGA Hansraj College, has organized a webinar, Write Your Own Success - a workshop on resume making and content writing. Our guest speaker Dr. Shivangi Aggarwal, Content writing coach and Founder at Writereena told us all about framing our resumes and common mistakes people make. Content writing was also explained. .
