

2019-2020

Name of the Department/Society: Ordinateur

Name of Event 1: Workshop on Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Photoshop

Date of the Event: 17.01.2020

Ordinateur, the computer science department of Hansraj college successfully organised its long-awaited workshop on Adobe Photoshop and Adobe illustrator today in a joyously packed seminar room full of inquisitive students eager to learn about two of the most important design and editing software currently in use. The event was started off with a brief introduction by Akshat Jain, President of Ordinateur about the workshop to be conducted and its benefits to the students attending it. Anuj Kumar, 3rd year CS student took over the seminar as the instructor on Adobe Photoshop taking the participating students through each and every tool and application of the software along with an appreciation of its potential as a great designing software. Ordinateur members were alert and vigilant throughout the seminar helping out with the technical problems or the smallest doubts faced by any student while going through the workshop. Anuj Kumar, the instructor repeatedly stressed over the necessity of practising and playing along with all the tools and applications the Adobe Photoshop has to offer. The workshop was further taken forward by Vidhi Khare 2nd year CS student as the instructor on Adobe illustrator as she excellently executed the flow of information regarding the software pointing out the various similarities between the two software. Once again, both the instructors were extremely helpful and encouraging going as far as to provide personal help to students facing problems with their software. The workshop lasted till 5 with every basic aspect of both the software covered, the instructors finally capped it off with some trivia about both the software and stressing about the need of continuous practise of the software. The event proved to be an insightful and enlightening experience for the students attending the workshop as well as those conducting it as at the end of the day, everyone got to learn something useful.

