Name of the Event 2: Intersectionality for Social Justice

Date of the Event: 20-02-2021

Intersectionality important to social justice(WDC): Vandita Morarka, founder of one future collective organisation and also the speaker of the webinar explained how Intersectionality is an analytical tool for studying, understanding and responding to the ways in which gender intersects with other identities and how these intersections contribute to unique experiences of oppression and privilege. He also mentioned that it is an useful strategy for linking the grounds of discrimination (e.g. race, gender, etc.) to the social, economic, political and legal environment that contributes to discrimination and structures experiences of oppression and privilege. More than 100 people joined the webinar and their questions were answered by the speaker at the end of the webinar.
