

2018 - 2019

Name of the Department/Society: History Society

Name of the Event 1: Performance and Protest

Date of the Event: 29th August 2018

The History Society, Hansraj College, organized a seminar on the theme of Performance and Protest. Dr. Sanjay Kumar, an associate professor in the English Department, Hansraj College, and the founding President of Pandies Theatre, delivered a talk and engaged in discussion with the participants. He dealt with the link between various forms of protests and how performance and theatre come into play. It was a very healthy interactive session that covered a wide range of issues- theatre history, western theatre, Indian theatre, his experiences with victims of Kashmir stone pelters, Nithari Case survivors, etc. The participants learned about a wide range of associate disciplines of history and were encouraged to explore those as their possible career options in the future. Overall, it was a very successful event.

