2021-2022

Name of the Department/Society: History Society

Name of the Extended Activity 1: TITLE: NETAJI AND EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN OF INDIA: THE ROLE OF RANI OF JHANSI REGIMENT IN INDIA;S FREEDOM STRUGGLE

Date of the Event: 28th January 2022

SPEAKER: DR. MONMOYEE BASU.

On 28th January 2022, the Department of History, Hansraj College organized a talk on Netaji and Empowerment of Women of India: The Role of the Rani of Jhansi Regiment in India's Freedom Struggle, celebrating Aazadi ka amrit mahotsav and the 125th Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose. Dr. Monmoyee Basu, Associate Professor, History Department, Hansraj College delivered an enthralling and vivid talk on the role played by the Rani of Jhansi Regiment in the Indian Independence Movement. It brought to light the saga of a number of forgotten 'Ranis' of the regiment who gave up everything and participated in the freedom struggle with the sole objective of seeing their motherland becoming a free nation. It was an enriching and it indeed was an honour to have Professor Basu with us.
