NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

Number of Participants: 22 Two-member teams

Transposon-The Life Sciences Society, Hansraj College, organized BioGeeks, a thrilling quiz showdown aimed at creating enthusiasm among the students of life sciences and test their calibre in the three frontiers of Life Sciences: Botany, Zoology and Chemistry. It was held on 1st February 2024 at Padma Bhushan Gyan Prakash Chopra Seminar Room, Hansraj College.

The quiz started around 2:00 PM with the welcoming of participants, audience and everyone present there. This was followed by an overview of Vikshit Bharat through a video. Vikshit Bharat@2047 is the vision to make India a developed nation by 2047, the 100th year of independence. The vision encompasses various aspects of development, including economic growth, social progress, environmental sustainability and good governance.

After that, anchors gave an introduction of the society and explained the general rules of the quiz. There were 13 teams from different colleges of Delhi University competing with each other. Each team consisted of 2 members. Quiz was conducted in four rounds. Rules of each round was explained by the anchors before starting of the round.

Round 1- Bio Quest, included questions that tested the basics of the participants in Botany, Zoology and Chemistry. There was no elimination in this round. In Round 2- Pic A Boo, pictures were displayed and teams had to identify them. Based on the scores at the end of this round, 3 teams were eliminated and the remaining 10 competed in Round 3- Double Trouble Round. In round 3, each team was allowed to choose one subject of their interest from Botany, Zoology and Chemistry and 3 questions were asked from the same. This round also had negative marking. Based on the score at the end of this round, 5 teams were eliminated and the remaining 5 competed with each other in Final Round, which was 'Rapid Fire Round'. There was also a tie-breaker round for the 3rd position.

With the final scores, Team 'Zoology' held the 3rd position, Team 'Alpha Challengers' the 2nd position and 1st position was held by team 'Dicer'. Winners were provided with certificates and gift
