The Academic Writing Bootcamp session, organized under the flagship of the INTERNATIONAL FINANCE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (IFSA-HANSRAJ), was an in-house skill development session on Academic Writing, for the newly recruited Junior Analysts of Batch of 2024. The session aimed to equip the participants with the know-how of research writing.

Encouraged by an enthusiastic participation of 35+ attendees across all the courses of our college, we aimed to present a detailed walkthrough of writing a research article, presenting a research paper, and career opportunities in Research & Academic Writing.

Various segments of the session:

- i) How to write a research article? This segment aimed to particularly underline the beginning checklist, do's and don'ts of a research article. We also covered the importance of academic writing at the very beginning of our career and research and ways to handle data prudently.
- ii) Presenting a research paper: this section in particular aimed to highlight the important yet basic go-about of kick-starting one's first research paper, the required formatting, and some critical areas to take care of while writing your paper.
- iii) Career opportunities in Research & Academic Writing: This segment helped the enthusiasts to deep dive into their career opportunities in the field of Research and academic writing. By the end of the session, they were well aware of the right internship opportunities and live projects, they should get hands-on to expand their horizon in this field.
