

2018 - 2019

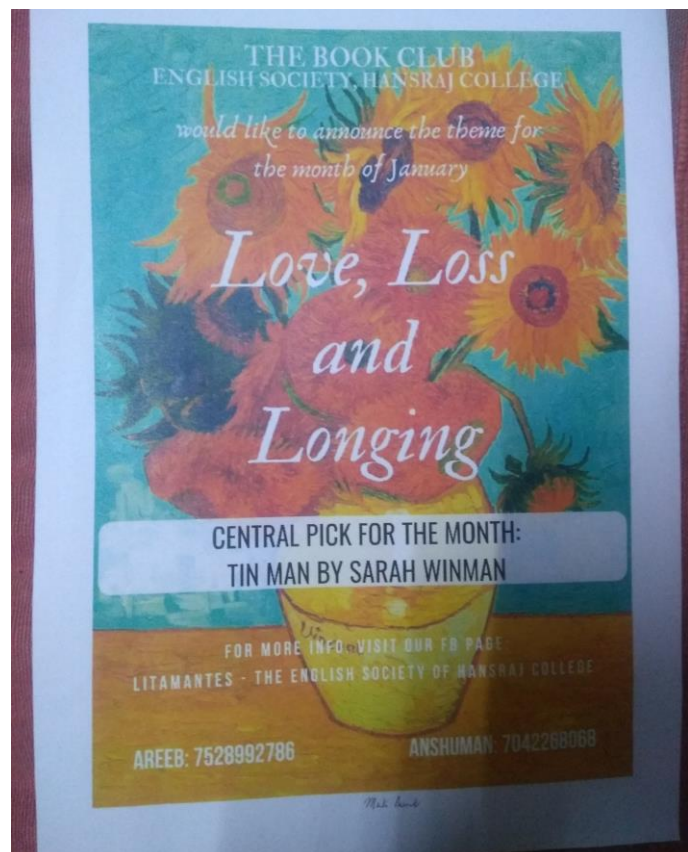

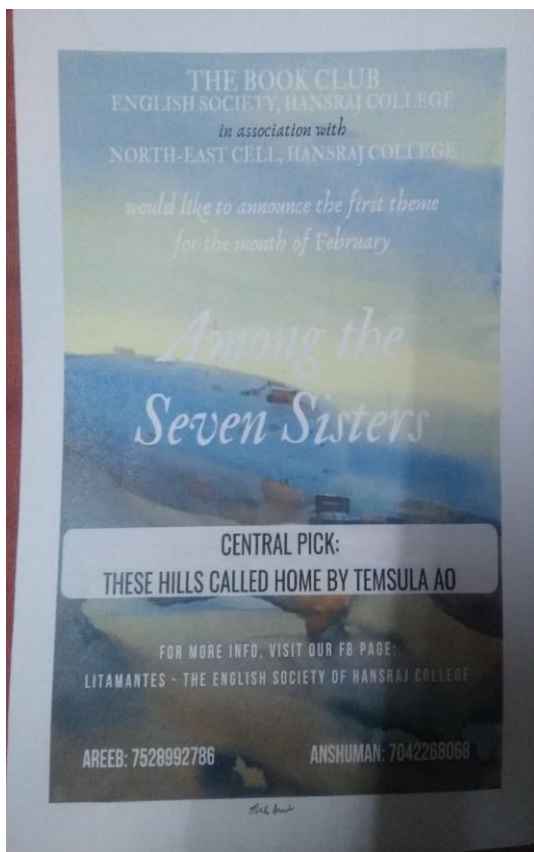

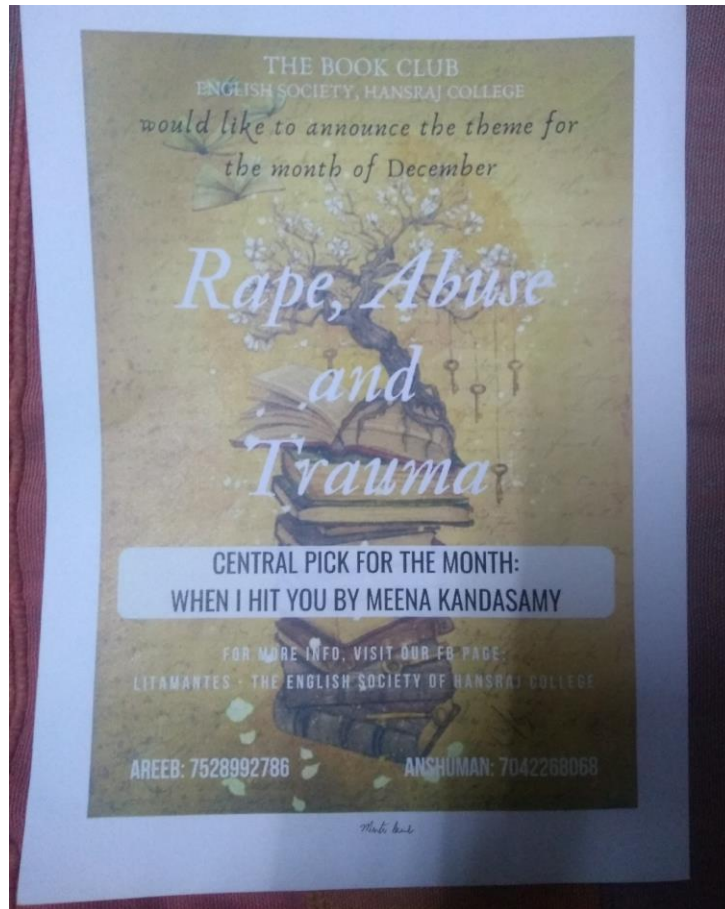

Name of the Department/Society: English Society

Name of the Event 5: Book Club Monthly Reading and Discussion

Date of the Event: 9/29/2018

The English Society launched a Book club on 29 September, 2018 for students in Hansraj College and other colleges. As part of this effort each month the club chose a new theme and a book based on that theme which would be read by students followed by a discussion also held monthly on the book/theme. The first Book club reading and discussion took place in the month of October 2018 and continued till April 2019. The inaugural theme in October was Mental Health and Awareness and the book based on the theme was Em and the Big Hoom by Jerry Pinto. The theme in the month of December was Rape, Abuse and Trauma along with the book, When I Hit You by Meena Kandasamy. This was followed by the theme Love, Loss and Longing in January, 2019 along with the book Tin Man by Sarah Winman. In February the club decided to focus on literature from the North East, the theme titled Among the Seven Sisters and the book of the month was These Hills Called Home by Temsula Ao. In February-March the theme was Waking Up from the American Dream alongside the book, The Reluctant Fundamentalist by Mohsin Hamid. This was followed by the final Book club reading based on the theme Old Tales, New Tellings and the book The Liberation of Sita by Volga.
