Flight 101, a mystery wrapped treasure hunt was conducted on 9th March, 2019.

This yearly event was an enthralling one, in which around 50 participants showed up on the main day.

The participants had to unveil the investigator inside them and think outside the box to get the clues and outshine their rivals. It was a hunt of the unprecedented treasures, jumping from one spot to another while following a gripping story. In the end, they were able to find the detectives they were looking for and were awarded with exciting cash prizes and goodies.

The event began in the college premises, but the hunt involved spots from the whole North Campus area of the University, giving the participants an experience like never before.
