INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR SESSION

SHAKTI an initiative of HRC DISHA under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Hansraj College, University of Delhi, organized an International Seminar Session titled "Future Smart Neglected and Underutilized Crops: A Case Study of Grasspea" on Wednesday, 29th January 2025, from 10:30 AM onwards. The seminar was conducted in online mode, with proceedings coordinated from the Padma Bhushan Gyan Prakash Chopra Seminar Room, Hansraj College.

The seminar aimed to highlight the significance of neglected and underutilized crops in ensuring food security, sustainable agriculture, and climate resilience, with a special focus on grasspea as a future-smart crop. The session also aligned with SHAKTI's vision of fostering inclusive academic discourse and encouraging interdisciplinary learning among students and faculty members.

The inaugural lecture was delivered by Dr. Divya Rathi, Post Doctoral Fellow, University of Iowa, USA, who served as the resource person for the session. The event was convened by Dr. Preeti Dharmarha, Convener, HRC DISHA, and Dr. Jnaneswari Gellanki, Convener, SHAKTI, with Dr. Ridhi Khurana as the Co-Convener. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Bhavana S. Jha, Departmental Coordinator.

During her lecture, Dr. Divya Rathi provided an insightful overview of the concept of future-smart crops, emphasizing the importance of revisiting traditional and underutilized crops in the context of global challenges such as climate change, nutritional insecurity, and sustainable farming practices. She discussed grasspea as a resilient crop with high adaptability to adverse climatic conditions and elaborated on its agronomic, nutritional, and socio-economic relevance. The speaker also addressed ongoing research efforts, challenges associated with crop utilization, and the scope for scientific innovation in improving crop safety and productivity.

The session witnessed active participation from students and faculty members across disciplines. The interactive discussion segment allowed participants to engage directly with the speaker, raising questions related to crop sustainability, research opportunities, and policy implications. Dr. Rath addressed the queries comprehensively, making the session highly informative and engaging.

The seminar successfully contributed to enhancing awareness about sustainable agricultural practices and the role of scientific research in national development. It reinforced SHAKTI's commitment to promoting academic excellence, critical thinking, and gender-inclusive platforms for learning and dialogue.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to the speaker, conveners, coordinators, and participants for their valuable contributions and enthusiastic participation.
