Event Description :

Srishti Chetna, The Zoological Society of Hansraj College organised 'Wildlife learning Expenditure' an educational visit to the National Zoological Park, New Delhi, on 14th October 2026 at 10:00 AM. The visit provided students with an opportunity to explore wildlife diversity through the observation of various animal and bird species, including the Asiatic Lion, Indian Elephant, Rhinoceros, White Buck, Silver Pheasant, and Blue-and-yellow Macaw, among many others.

The expedition aimed to enhance students' practical understanding of zoological diversity, distinctive animal characteristics, and the importance of wildlife conservation. The experience offered valuable insights into the richness of the animal kingdom, stimulated curiosity about the natural world, and highlighted the need to protect biodiversity and preserve wildlife habitats. The visit was an enriching educational experience that fostered wildlife awareness and complemented classroom learning through direct observation and experiential learning. Overall, the expedition served as a meaningful learning experience, encouraging students to appreciate the natural world and recognise their responsibility in safeguarding wildlife and maintaining ecological balance.
