Date of the Event: 24th February 2018

Students of the Delhi University, as well as other universities such as Amity, Jamia Milia, and Indraprastha participated in Vakif. The event had 200 registrations and it offered various streams for the participants to choose from. The Blackout Poetry was a major hit as it gave the opportunity to carve a poem rather than writing one. Slam Poetry saw the topics from feminism to childhood, all in a time span of 2 hours. Presenting a poet gave the opportunity to live the life of a famous poet for some time. People brought out the Ghalib and Wordsworth within themselves.

The members of the society organized the events on a grand scale. From handling the decorations to organizing events, the volunteers made sure that the event was a success.
