

2020-2021

Name of the Department/Society: Entrepreneurial Cell

Name of the Event: Discussion on Research and Documentation

Date of the Event: 11th November 2020

A discussion on Research and Documentation was organized by the members of The Entrepreneurial cell of Hansraj College. Participants from across the Delhi University circle took part with extreme zeal and enthusiasm and made sure that everyone gets something positive out of these scheduled two hours.

The discussion began with E-Cell Hansraj's President introducing the topic and the basic flow of the discussion to all the participants. The President further explained the cause of the discussion and ended with requesting all the participants to maintain the decorum of the meeting.

After the president's address the Chair for the day, took over the stage and explained his take on Research and documentation.

This opens the stage for discussion and everyone interested put forward their views one by one, strictly adhering to the procedure initially explained by the President.

The notes were taken by everyone and submitted to the chair. Reflecting on the views of all the participants the chair finally concludes the meeting by summarizing the meaning, need and features of Research Documentation in her final note. She mentions that "Research Documentation means any and all documents, records, accounts, notes, reports (including, without limitation, the progress reports and the final report prepared in accordance with the concerned provisions in the Agreement) and other data from the Research related to the Materials, whether in written, electronic, video or other tangible form created by or by a third party on behalf of Recipient."
