Q14.
The first instance of this in the world of film is believed to be by Harry Post-Land's character in the 1918 silent movie 'Men who have made love to me'. Since then, it has been extensively used as a device to achieve plot purposes, or to make audiences feel more involved and connected to the movie or show they're watching. One of the most widely discussed and acclaimed use of this was in the dark-comedy show _____, where it is used to convey the dynamics of its "unreliable" character*. It's genius use of this technique shows how the only person who understands the main character is able to spot them using this technique or try to get through them. _____ is being talked about? Also identify the show that first used in 2015.
