Name of the Department/Society: Finance and Investment Cell

Name of the Event 1: Empresa 2017

Date of the Event: 21st February 2017

The flagship event of FIC Hansraj was conducted on February 21 in 2017. In this speaker session, the cell hosted three legendary speakers in their domains namely, Durjoy Dutta, Montek S. Ahluwalia, Rahul Tyagi, and Venkaiah Naidu.

A brief description about the speakers is as follows-

Durjoy Dutta - He began his writing journey in college while pursuing engineering and wrote his first novel "Ofcourse, I Love You." Now, he is the author of 6 bestsellers, has contributed to 4 leading TV shows including the popular 'Sadda Haq- My Life, My Choice', co-founded a publishing house called 'Grapevine India', has been named as a 'Young Achiever' by The Times of India and has won the Teacher's Achievement Award.

Venkaiah Naidu - Mr. M Venkaiah Naidu, incumbent Union Minister of Housing and Urban Poverty alleviation and recipient of Skoch Lifetime Achievement Award was one of the keynote speakers for Empresa'17. Former National president and party secretary, he is not only the face of leadership but also the brain behind the mechanics of projects such as the 'Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana'.

Montek Singh Ahluwalia – He was felicitated with the Padma Vibhushan - India's second highest civilian honour for public service. A graduate from the Oxford University, the 'Division Chief' at the World Bank and 'Director of Evaluation Office' at IMF, a nurturing writer - this Indian Economist held the position of the Deputy Chairman of the Planning Commission of India (2004-14).

Rahul Tyagi - Initiating his career in the cyber world by hacking his own password 'onc3therewasacr0w', this BlackBerry Hall of famer has conducted over one hundred training sessions on cyber security globally. Mr. Tyagi has also been instrumental in highlighting the vulnerabilities on the websites of Intel, Sony, HP and many other corporations. Currently, the 29-year-old Indian is the vice president of Lucideus, an IT risk assessment and digital security service provider based in New Delhi.

There were over 350 people who attended the event, and it was appreciated by one and all as a discussion worthy to be attended.

Name of the Event 2: Session on stock Exchange and Visit to NSE

Date of the Event: 9th October 2017

There were 30 students who went to visit SEBI on 9th October, 2017 by Mr. Kunal from SEBI.

The Finance and Investment Cell of Hans Raj College organized a field visit to the regional office of National Stock Exchange in Delhi today, on 9th October, 2017. It was an initiative undertaken to enhance the knowledge of its society members and avid finance enthusiasts by enabling them to learn about finance from the finance gurus of the 12th largest stock exchange of the world.

Mr. Kunal Tyagi, a seasoned investor from the Education and Development wing of NSE, presided over the session. His discussion encompassed comprehensive financial topics ranging from a brief introduction of stock exchange and its evolution through the years, its live time operations, market participants and their role to the numerous market instruments available in Indian stock market for aspiring investors such as alternate investment vehicles. The session ended with Mr. Kunal Kapoor briefing everyone about the significance of National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM) Certifications to enable students to distinguish themselves and carve a niche in the field of finance.

All in all, it was an enriching experience with each attendee being delighted and grateful to NSE for conducting such an informational visit.

Name of the Event 3: Finance Platter 2017

Date of the Event: 27th October 2017

The Finance and Investment Cell, Hansraj College organised Finance Platter'17, an exciting, stimulating and engaging event that pushed the participants to perform their best on the 27th of October. It is a triad of dynamic events encapsulating the trends of stock market, the conspiracies of the underworld and the shrewd sphere of venture capitalism.

Strong believers in the philosophy of investment in knowledge being the best investment and aim to keep the spirit of learning alive through these comprehensive events which serve the opportunity to hone and develop analytical thinking and presence of mind in the financial sphere on a silver platter. There is nothing to lose and prizes worth ₹1 lakh(₹25K Cash) at stake.

It saw a participation of over 300 students from all across the Delhi University colleges.

A brief description of the events –

The event began with the lighting of the lamp ceremony conducted by Mr.Saurabh Chaturvedi, founder and CEO of Innolabz along with the society's core team members. This was followed by the mock stock competition- 'The Stockfather', the prelims of which witnessed a crowd of over 300 participants speculating on various securities as per the news and rumours. The outcry round was a frenzy filled trading in the American, Chinese and Indian stocks. The auditorium resonated with sounds of deals and negotiations, some that closed and some that failed.

'Prisonbreak-Narcos on Death Row' was another event set in the sinister world of crime, drugs, and money-making. The selected teams were required to strategise their way to escape custody. One member of the team donned the role of a bureaucrat while the other became a terrorist, and the two together had to manage resources amongst their groups to terrorise various locations of the national capital.

The B-plan competition, 'Power2Idea- Think. Plan. Execute' had an illustrious judging panel which constituted Mr. Saurabh Chaturvedi, founder and CEO of Innolabz, and Mr. Rajesh Parekh, a Chartered Accountant having an experience of over 25 years in the finance industry. The most innovative 18 abstracts were shortlisted and those who made it to the final round then delivered a presentation of 7 minutes each, explaining their concept in detail. The judges were impressed with the quality and level of participation they witnessed in the event." We were amazed and astonished by ideas presented before us. Thinking that bricks can be created out of cigarette butts or incense sticks that don't emit smoke are any day out of the box. These ideas are worth incubating", said Mr. Saurabh after the conclusion of the event.
