In the first week of September 2019, Society of General awareness (SGA) organized a number of events for the happiness week. The events which aimed at spreading smiles was an overall success with a large number of students participating in our initiative.

On the voyage of helping people lead a happy life, we organized a signature campaign along with a gratitude jar activity on the first day- 2nd September, and got an overwhelming response from the crowd.

Art is definitely conducive to happiness. Realizing this, on 3rd September we organized a number of competitions for the art enthusiasts in the college.

On the third day, we conducted a seminar on "Secrets to happiness" which was hosted by Mr. Rohit Sharma, the Executive Director of "Way to happiness foundation". It was attended and appreciated by around 80 students from different courses.

On the fourth day of the week, we visited an orphanage "bacchon ka ghar" to conclude the voyage with some happy, cheerful and innocent memories and footprints.

We wish all of you a very happy life and thank you for being a part of the the events and helping us to make it successful. Society of General Awareness of Hansraj College successfully organised its event 'Art of Happiness' under the Happiness Week 2019.
