Name of the Event – Bachchiyon Ka Ghar Visit

Date of the Event – 25/09/2018

Every child is precious to their parents yet there is something special about daughters which prompts us to celebrate their existence in this world. They descend from God's lap to their mother's womb with the mission of beautifying the lives of their close ones with their warmth and care. With the aim of celebrating this blessing, the Women Development Cell visited an orphanage, called Bachiyon Ka Ghar.

WDC desired to bring those angels to the notice of their benign presence. The society organised some fun and engaging activities like pictionary, paintings, etc., which gave them a way to celebrate their day. The 'beautiful you' session was conducted with the motive of creating an environment where they learn their potentials and identify their inner beauties. The children realised their talents and capabilities and developed their purpose in life. Their cheerful and smiling faces were evident of the success of the event.
