SPIC MACAY Hansraj College Chapter: “Cinema Classics”

The SPIC MACAY Hansraj Chapter held a session, a movie screening of the classic film Agantuk, directed by the legendary filmmaker Satyajit Ray. The event was held on 16th feb 2026 at New Seminar Hall, Hansraj College for students and faculty members, with the aim of promoting appreciation for meaningful cinema and Indian cultural values. Agantuk is one of Satyajit Ray's final films and explores themes of identity, trust, civilization, and the nature of human relationships. The story revolves around a mysterious relative who visits a family after many years, raising questions about tradition, modernity, and the true meaning of culture.

The screening began with a brief introduction by Ms. Rishika Sharma, who welcomed the guests and the participants, and highlighted the importance of Ray's contribution to Indian cinema. The audience watched the film with keen interest, appreciating its thoughtful narrative, simple storytelling, and philosophical depth. It is very helpful for our ancient culture and civilization.

Post movie screening; an excellent interactive discussion session was conducted by Dr. Mausumi Bose invited faculty member, Ramjas college, University of Delhi. The relevance of the movie in modern societal constructs and the intellectual yet simple narrative contrasting with fast-paced modern cinema was discussed. The students shared their interpretations and reflections on the movie. It was a meaningful and memorable experience for everyone present. The film left a strong intellectual and emotional impact on the audience. It encouraged viewers to question social norms, rethink the meaning of civilization, and appreciate cultural diversity. The character of the “visitor” inspired students to reflect on values such as trust, open-mindedness, and human connection beyond material success.

Overall, the movie screening proved to be an enriching and thought-provoking experience. It not only entertained the audience but also sparked meaningful discussions and deeper understanding of culture and humanity. The story revolves around a mysterious man who claims to be a long-lost relative and visits a middle-class family after many years. His sudden arrival creates doubt and curiosity among the family members. Through conversations and situations, the film explores themes such as trust, identity, civilization, culture, and human values. It not only entertained but also inspired deeper thinking and discussion among the viewers. Overall, the session was successful in promoting appreciation for classic cinema and intellectual engagement.

Dr. Kaveri Chakrabarty, Convener of SPIC MACAY expressed her gratitude towards all who made this event a grand success including the members and the faculty who were present for the event, and concluded with a final discussion on the topic. Overall, the Cinema Classics session successfully completed and promoted appreciation for classic cinema and intellectual engagement.
