Name of Convener:

Event Description :

The Public Policy and Opinion Cell of Hansraj College organized a live webinar on the theme “Emotional Intelligence in Policy Leadership” to highlight the critical role of emotional awareness and interpersonal skills in effective policymaking and leadership. The session featured Mr. Jestin, Co-founder and Chairperson of NCF, as the keynote speaker, who shared valuable insights drawn from his extensive experience in leadership and public engagement.

The webinar focused on understanding emotional intelligence as a vital competency for policy leaders who must navigate complex stakeholder relationships, make informed decisions under pressure, and communicate policies with empathy and clarity. Mr. Jestin elaborated on the significance of self-awareness, empathy, adaptability, and effective communication in fostering trust and collaboration within governance structures.

Participants gained practical strategies to enhance emotional intelligence, including active listening, managing stress, and maintaining composure in challenging situations. The speaker also emphasized how emotionally intelligent leadership can contribute to more inclusive and people-centric policymaking, ultimately leading to better societal outcomes.

NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++ GRADE COLLEGE

The interactive session encouraged students to reflect on their own leadership styles and understand how emotional intelligence can shape professional growth, especially in public service and policy roles. The webinar concluded with a question-and-answer segment, allowing attendees to engage directly with the speaker and seek guidance on applying these concepts in real-life scenarios. Overall, the event provided valuable perspectives on integrating emotional intelligence with policy leadership, inspiring participants to develop both analytical and interpersonal skills for impactful careers.
