Technology meet 2025

On the 10th of September, the Lumen Society proudly organized its first event of the tenure 2025-26- Ideathon, an initiative to invite innovative minds to present their groundbreaking ideas. The occasion also aligned with the celebration of Teacher's Day, making it a perfect blend of creativity and gratitude.

The event was anchored by Sneha Dey and Kritika Puwar, who kept the audience engaged throughout. President Shivam Singh shared his visionary plans for the society, while Convener Dr. Rajender Prasad Tiwari inspired students to embrace science with courage, emphasizing that taking risks with confidence leads to great discoveries.

The program began with the introduction of the Vice President, Secretary, Council Members, and Wing Heads, paving the way for a promising year. To celebrate Teacher's Day, society members performed poems and songs dedicated to professors, followed by an entertaining Q&A game where teachers answered random questions with personal stories and humor, captivating everyone. After the game, professors were honored with a small token of appreciation as a gesture of gratitude.

The spotlight then shifted to the much-awaited Ideathon. Participants presented a wide range of creative and practical solutions to everyday problems — from pothole detectors to anxiety-relieving watches, from soil monitoring devices to air purifiers. The originality and depth of the ideas impressed everyone, proving that youthful innovation has the power to notice the unnoticed.

Teachers cast their votes via an app, and after much anticipation, "Vocalised Gloves" by second-year Electronics students was awarded the first prize. This invention converts hand signs into voice commands, offering immense support to vocally disabled individuals. The second prize went to Anxiety and Stress-Relieving Watches, pitched by third-year students, addressing one of the most common issues of modern life.

The event concluded with Vice President Manas Lohani delivering a heartfelt vote of thanks, followed by a group photograph with professors and refreshments for all. The day beautifully blended innovation and celebration, setting a strong foundation for the Lumen Society's journey ahead.
