Description of the event

TEDxHansraj hosted its flagship annual licensed event on 2nd April 2025, bringing together an eclectic mix of ideas, artistry, and impact under the thought-provoking theme: Parallax – The Waltz of Realities. The event aimed to explore how shifting perspectives can reveal the complex, layered nature of reality and truth, encouraging attendees to think beyond the ordinary.

Parallax: The Waltz of Realities, an event, organized by TEDxHansraj on April 2nd, was an engaging and impactful offline experience that brought together a diverse group of speakers who shared their journeys and insights on leaving a lasting legacy. The event aimed to inspire students and guests to think beyond the present and reflect on the foot

The event began with a warm welcome and an introduction to the theme by the anchor extraordinaire, Aarushi Verma, setting the tone for a day filled with thought-provoking ideas and stories. The event continued with an enlightening talk by Vijay Pal Tonk, who spoke on the need for ethical education that nurtures integrity and empathy, using poetry and storytelling to convey his message. Dr. Ved Vyas Vishwanathan followed with reflections rooted in philosophy and timeless wisdom, connecting them to modern challenges. Piyush Mishra then took the stage with commendable poetry and sang two of his signature songs, reminding the audience of art's power to mirror society. After an energetic cultural performance by the Bhangraa Queens, Shatrughan Tripathi delivered a thought-provoking discourse on leadership and social issues. Tamanna Sharma inspired with her narrative on creativity and resilience, while Aarzo Khurana concluded the speaker sessions with a vision of empowerment and community building. The event closed on a vibrant note with the Delhi Indie Project's musical performance, leaving the audience both inspired and energized.

Speakers and Performers:

1. Mr. Piyush Mishra (Actor, poet, singer) - delivered a powerful piece of poetry that underscored art's ability to inspire change and reflect society's truths. Later, outside of his formal talk, he delighted the audience by singing two of his renowned songs, Arambh Hai Prachand and Ek Baadal Mein Chandola, which became one of the most memorable highlights of the event.

2. Aarzo Khurana (Wildlife Photographer)- Aarzo Khurana – She shared an inspiring and forward-looking message on empowerment and community building, emphasizing the importance of individual initiative and collective effort and encouraged the audience to translate the day's energy and insights into meaningful actions, fostering collaboration, inclusivity, and a spirit of positive change.

3. Tamanna Sharma (Poet) – She inspired with stories of resilience and creativity, sharing how staying true to one's passion can help overcome challenges and carve a path of growth.

4. Dr. Ved Vyas Vishwanathan (Physician, Poet, Advocate)– He reflected on the relevance of ancient philosophy in addressing modern challenges, emphasizing how timeless wisdom can guide daily choices and shape a balanced, meaningful life.

5. Shatrughan Tripathi (Artist Manager) – His talk revolved around leadership, social issues, and personal responsibility. With thought-provoking insights, he encouraged the audience to reflect on the role of individuals in driving positive change.

6. Vijay Pal Singh Tonk (Poet, Author, Advocate)– His talk highlighted how education must go beyond academics to cultivate values, empathy, and social responsibility. Through poetry and storytelling, he urged the audience to see ethical learning as the foundation of character.

7. Bhangraa Queens (Dancer) - This was a cultural or dance/music segment - a performance by "Bhangraa Queens." They would have brought energy, rhythm, and color to the event, entertaining the audience while connecting to cultural roots.

8. Delhi Indie Project- The event closed with a performance or presentation by Delhi Indie Project — likely musical or multimedia, bringing artistic vibrancy to end on a high note.
