Event Description (About 250 Words):

Conexus was a flagship networking event organized by Cases Over Coffee at Hansraj College, bringing together various CoC branches from across Delhi University on a single platform. The event aimed to foster collaboration, peer learning, and meaningful networking among students interested in consulting. It marked the expansion and active participation of Cases Over Coffee across prominent DU colleges, including Shri Ram College of Commerce, Daulat Ram College, Kirori Mal College, Lady Shri Ram College, and Sri Venkateswara College, reinforcing a strong inter-college consulting community.

The first round of Conexus was an engaging icebreaker discussion focused on encouraging critical thinking and diverse viewpoints. Participants were divided into groups and assigned challenging topics for a group discussion. Each group deliberated and presented their key conclusions through a representative. After every round, groups were reshuffled, enabling participants to interact with new peers, exchange fresh perspectives, and build confidence in structured discussions.

The second segment featured a crisis management competition titled Damage Control. Participants were placed in teams and given extreme, on-the-spot crisis scenarios. Each team was required to analyze the situation under time pressure and deliver a concise, solution-oriented pitch. The event created a strong on-ground impact,
